NeighborWorks Sacramento Region Salutes National HomeOwnership Month - Launches Online Homebuyer Education

Sacramento, CA – NeighborWorks HomeOwnership Center Sacramento Region is saluting National Homeownership Month by announcing that quality online home ownership education is now available online. Having online access to quality information gives everyone interested in buying a home the convenient opportunity to get unbiased and comprehensive education that will help lead the way to successful homeownership.

“This is one of the best times to buy a home – with low interest rates, affordability has never been better” said Mike Himes, HomeOwnership Services Director for NeighborWorks Sacramento Region, “Buying a home is a big decision, it is important that buyers know what steps to take and what pitfalls to avoid”.

“We are excited to be able to offer this dynamic educational tool to potential homeowners in the Sacramento region” stated Pam Canada, CEO, of NeighborWorks Sacramento. “Through our new connection with eHome America, potential homebuyers in rural and urban areas of the Sacramento Region can now take the course anywhere at anytime from a trusted provider.”

Available online in English and Spanish, with over 50 video tutorials, eHome America is the most comprehensive online home buyer training course available. Home buyers learn at their own pace and are held accountable with integrated quizzes and tests, obtaining a certificate of completion after completing the full course, from NeighborWorks Sacramento Region.

NeighborWorks Sacramento Region is a non-profit organization providing people the path to successful homeownership. With offices in Sacramento and in Stockton, they continue to offer on-site homebuyer education classes for those customers that prefer this option or need face to face education to meet specific lending guidelines. Classes are offered on a regular schedule throughout the year and people can register at www.nwsac.org anytime. Providing the on-line education option for our customers offers a quality alternative that is accessible at any time of day.

Potential homebuyers can access homebuyer education through NeighborWorks Sacramento at www.nwsac.org or at www.eHomeAmerica.org . The cost for the eight-hour course is $50.
